11. Acceptance & Image Rights

- Registered players authorize the tournament organization to disseminate information and to use images or the team name in media, announcements, and tournament reports, provided that this does not harm their honor or reputation or go against their interests, and always within the legal framework established by the Civil Code, the Civil Procedure Act, and Organic Law 15/1999 of December 13 on the Protection of Personal Data.
- Registration in this tournament implies acceptance of its rules, as well as the express and voluntary authorization to Escola Luguesa de Xadrez to use, free of charge, videos, images, and audio recordings in which participants appear, including those provided by the organization itself, for publication on its website, social media, and other printed and digital materials, in order to increase the visibility and promotion of the organization's activities.

This authorization applies to all uses that may be made of the videos, images, and audio recordings in which participants appear, using currently known technical means and those that may be developed in the future, and for any application, with the sole exception of uses that could infringe the right to honor under the terms established in Organic Law 1/1982 of May 5.

This authorization does not set any time limit for its validity or for the use of such materials, and is therefore considered granted indefinitely. It may be revoked at any time by the interested party, except for ongoing actions or campaigns, which must be completed for the revocation to take effect, and it will not have retroactive effect.

- The Organization reserves the right to modify the tournament rules, with the sole obligation of publishing them on its website:

<https://openajedrezfuxanosventoslugo.com/> or on the tournament notice board.
